

California Privacy Policy

Introduction

This California Privacy Policy outlines how Horizon Cable TV (“we,” “us,” or “our”) collects, uses, shares, and protects personally identifiable information (PII) of our California customers. We are committed to safeguarding your privacy rights in accordance with California state laws.

Your Rights Under California Law

1. Right to Know

As a California resident, you have the right to request information about the PII we collect, use, and disclose. Specifically, you can ask us to disclose:

- The categories and specific pieces of PII collected about you.
- The sources from which we collect your PII.
- The purposes for which we use your PII.
- The categories of third parties with whom we share your PII.
- The categories of PII sold or disclosed to third parties for their direct marketing purposes.

2. Right to Delete

You can also request the deletion of your PII, subject to certain exceptions. If you wish to exercise this right, please contact us using the details provided below.

3. How to Make a Request

To make a request under California Civil Code Section 1798.83 (S.B. 27), please contact us via one of the following methods:

- Email: support@horizoncable.net
- Mail: Horizon Cable TV, General Manager, P.O. Box 1240, Point Reyes Station, CA 94930

Please include your name and the address to which you would like us to respond. We will make reasonable efforts to provide you with the requested information within thirty days of receiving your request.

Additional California Privacy Requirements

In addition to the rights mentioned above, California law imposes additional obligations on businesses. These include:

1. Do Not Sell or Share My Personal Information: We will provide a visible link on our website allowing users to opt out of the sale or sharing of their PII.

2. Data Subject Access Request (DSAR) Form: We will provide a mechanism for users to submit DSARs, allowing them to exercise their privacy rights.
